Convention Travel Document – Australian Titre De Voyage

The Titre De Voyage (TDV) is a Convention Travel Document, issued under the United Nations Convention relating to the Status of Refugees of 28 July 1951 and its 1967 Protocol.

TDVs are issued in Australia to people who are:

- not Australian citizens
- about to depart Australia, and
- recognised by Australia as refugees (in Australia on specific visa subclasses)

TDVs have:

- a maximum validity of two years (initial validity period may be extended)
- 37 visa pages
- An electronic chip (since April 2009), and
- A blue cover with two black stripes across the top left hand corner of the cover

A TDV provides evidence of identity but, as the holder is a non-citizen, they also require a visa to travel to enter Australia.
