Are you aware that substitutable goods are produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business?

- (a) If you are aware, based on information and your enquiries that substitutable goods are being produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business, then you should not lodge an application for a TCO.

Do you need to apply for a new TCO?

- (b) Before lodging this application for a TCO, the applicant should determine whether a suitable TCO already exists. Information on existing TCOs is available on the Internet at www.homeaffairs.gov.au

Have you verified that there are no substitutable goods produced in Australia (refer to questions 5, 6 and 7 of the form)?

- (c) Section 269FA states "It is the responsibility of an applicant for a TCO to establish, to the satisfaction of the Comptroller-General of Customs, that, on the basis of:

- (a) all information that the applicant has, or can reasonably be expected to have; and
(b) all enquiries that the applicant has made, or can reasonably be expected to make;

there are reasonable grounds for asserting that the application meets the core criteria".

The application is taken to meet the core criteria if, on the day of lodgement of the application, no substitutable goods were produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business.

Completing the application

- (d) Subsection 269F requires that a TCO application be in writing, be in an "approved form", contain such information as the form requires, and be signed in the manner indicated in the form.

This is the approved form for the purposes of that section.

(b) a statement of the tariff classification that, in the opinion of the applicant, applies to the goods; and
(c) if the applicant is not proposing to make use of the TCO to import the goods to which the application relates into Australia on the applicant's own behalf – the identity of the importer for whom the applicant is acting; and
(d) particulars of all enquiries made by the applicant (including enquiries made of prescribed organisations) to assist in establishing that there were reasonable grounds for believing that on the day on which the application was lodged, there were no producers in Australia of substitutable goods.

Information for applicants – some useful definitions from the Customs Act 1901

269B – Interpretation

Subsection 269B(1)

Capital equipment means goods, which if imported into Australia, would be goods to which Chapters 84, 85, 86, 87, 89 or 90 of Schedule 3 to the Customs Tariff Act 1995 would apply.

Substitutable goods, in respect of goods the subject of a TCO application or of a TCO, means goods produced in Australia that are put, or are capable of being put, to a use that corresponds with a use (including a design use) to which the goods the subject of the application or of the TCO can be put.

Subsection 269B(3)

In determining whether goods produced in Australia are put, or are capable of being put, to a use corresponding to a use to which goods the subject of a TCO, or of an application for a TCO, can be put, it is irrelevant whether or not the first mentioned goods compete with the second mentioned goods in any market.

269C – Core criteria

For the purposes of this Part, a TCO application is taken to meet the core criteria if, on the day on which the application was lodged, no substitutable goods were produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business.

269D – Goods produced in Australia

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, goods, other than unmanufactured raw products, are taken to be produced in Australia if the goods are wholly or partly manufactured in Australia.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, goods are to be taken to have been partly manufactured in Australia if at least one substantial process in the manufacture of the goods was carried out in Australia.
- (3) Without limiting the meaning of the expression substantial process in the manufacture of the goods, any of the following operations or any combination of those operations does not constitute such a process:
  - (a) operations to preserve goods during transportation or storage;
  - (b) operations to improve the packing or labelling or marketable quality of goods;
  - (c) operations to prepare goods for shipment;
  - (d) simple assembly operations;
  - (e) operations to mix goods where the resulting product does not have different properties from those of the goods that have been mixed.

269E – The ordinary course of business

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, other than section 269Q, goods (other than made-to-order capital equipment) that are substitutable goods in relation to goods the subject of a TCO application are taken to be produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business if:
  - (a) they have been produced in Australia in the 2 years before the application was lodged; or
  - (b) they have been produced, and are held in stock, in Australia; or
  - (c) they are produced in Australia on an intermittent basis and have been so produced in the 5 years before the application was lodged;and a producer in Australia is prepared to accept an order to supply them.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, substitutable goods, in respect of goods the subject of a TCO application, are taken to be produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business if:
  - (a) a producer in Australia could produce substitutable goods, in respect of goods the subject of the TCO application, with existing facilities; and
  - (b) the substitutable goods the producer could produce would be made-to-order capital equipment; and
  - (c) in the 5 years before the application was lodged, the producer has made goods requiring the same labour skills, technology and design expertise as the substitutable goods the producer could produce; and
  - (d) the producer is prepared to accept an order to supply substitutable goods in respect of goods the subject of the TCO application.
- (3) In this section:

made-to-order capital equipment means a particular item of capital equipment:

  - (a) that is made in Australia on a one-off basis to meet a specific order rather than being the subject of regular or intermittent production; and
  - (b) that is not produced in quantities indicative of a production run.
