USERS OF TARIFF CONCESSION SYSTEM

You may have heard that functions of the Australian Customs and Border Protection Service and the Department of Immigration and Border Protection will be integrated into a new Department and that the Australian Border Force will be established within that Department.

This amalgamation takes effect from 01 July 2015.

While this consolidation takes place the core operations of the Tariff Concession team will not change. However from time to time there may be some administrative changes in contact numbers.

At this point

- the TARCON mailbox remains the same (tarcon@customs.gov.au);
- the TAPIN help telephone number remains the same (02 6275 6534);
- the Customs and Border Protection Information Centre telephone number remains the same (1300 363 263);
- The general enquiries new number is 02 6198 7289, or send by facsimile to 02 6198 7203

The Tariff Concession team has physically moved within Canberra and applications that are currently sent by post are subject to additional security scrutiny which may result in delays to the operative date. To ensure a faster process please send your applications by email to the TARCON mailbox (as above).

Any further changes will be advised to you as soon as practicable.
