TARIFF CONCESSION ORDERS - INADEQUATE DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) intends to examine the description of goods in each of the Tariff Concession Orders (TCOs) listed below. If, after examining an Order the CEO considers that the goods the subject of the Order are not adequately described, action will be taken under subsection 269SD(1AA) of the Customs Act 1901 to initiate revocation of the Order. A notice declaring the CEO's intention to take such action under subsection 269SD(1AA) would be published 120 days from the date of this notice and any intended revocation day will be set out therein.

Any importer seeking continued Tariff Concession coverage of these goods is invited to lodge a new Tariff Concession application within 28 days of this notice to provide adequate time to process replacement applications. In transit provisions will not apply.

Enquiries may be directed to Mr. Bruce Walters on 02 6275 6434.
